the lands...that the state controls for school funds.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: That's right, um-hum.

SENATOR JANSSEN: So...and are...those members of that board, I assume they are all appointed by the administration, is that right?

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Yes.

SENATOR JANSSEN: Are most all of the boards on, on this sheet here, those boards mostly appointed by the administration?

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Yes.

SENATOR JANSSEN: So the...

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Yeah, of the boards that are. Now there's, like Agriculture and Banking, those are not boards, but...

SENATOR JANSSEN: No, but anything that does have a board of directors.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: ...Electrical Board, Educational Lands and Funds, and others, Game and...well, not Game...yeah, Game and Parks is.

SENATOR JANSSEN: So in other words, if they are spending too much money then the Governor would have a control over them, whoever is in the, in the Governor's mansion at that time.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: That would be another way to do that, right.

SENATOR JANSSEN: Well, I...thank you, Senator Wehrbein. And with that, I do stand in support of the overrides of these particular agencies. Thank you.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator. Senator Robinson announces that the following guests are visiting the Legislature. Don and Lila Conrad are here from Blair. They're seated under the north balcony. Don and Senator Robinson graduated from high school together, and they are both the
